THE RECORD OF THE DESCENDENTS OF HENRY HORN

2170723

Clara (Clemmer) Stover of Eaton, Ohio has collected most of the records here-in of Henry Horn, and from many sources, - from descendents, cemetery records, town and church records, county court records, etc.

Mrs. Stover has attended all but two of the Preble County reunions of the Horn family held each year, the first one in 1895. She was Secretary of these four years, pro-tem Secretary two years and then Secretary-Treasurer beginning in year 1931 and still holds that office. Frank Horn of Lewisburg, Ohio is now President and David Horn of Middletown, Ohio is Vice-President and Ruby (Ruff) Hopkins of Eaton, Ohio is Assistant Secretary.

The idea of having reunions was started by Blanch Horn Lincoln # 310 and E. R. Horn # 192 and a few others who met at the home of Julius and Sally Rice # 243 one evening in 1894. To those few we owe much.

OUR HISTORY

This poem was written by J. E. North of Greenville, Ohio, for the "House family History." As he passed on last fall we are using it without permission.

"In reading the names of our ancestors
And of our living relatives,
And learning who they were, and are,
It much of pleasure gives.

If we could read the history
Of our dear old noble sires,
We would read of summer evenings
And by our winter fires.

And the lives of those yet here,
May their talents God hath given
Make this world a better place
And make it more like Heaven.

God grant that all who read herein
And every name found here
In the Book of God's Kingdom
May they each and all appear."

Henry Horn

Heinrich, Henrich or Henry Horn, was born in Germany, October 8, 1755 and died at Lewisburg, Ohio, November 17, 1839 aged Eighty-four (84) years, one month, nine days. (Cemetery record) and buried in the Roselawn Cemetery, Lewisburg, Ohio.

The numerous printed records do not agree on the date of his coming to America with his parents or the number of his brothers. If at nine years of age, as in one record, his father may have been Johanes Henrich Horn who came October 20, 1764 on the "Richmond", Chas. Younghusband, Captain. Or if he came in 1767 and to Adams County, Pennsylvania in 1768 as another record gives, his father could have been Heinrich Horn that came October 6, 1767 on the "Hamilton", Chas. Smith, Commander, or Johannes who came on "Brittania", October 26, 1767, as both of these used the same style of "H's" in signing their names on the ship's register that our Henry used in all of his signatures that we have seen. These records from Pennsylvania Pioneers, by Dr. Wm. J. Hinke, who gave only the names of heads of families or males over sixteen. If at age of 15 the father was Henricus Horn, who had printed his name, on record of the "Sally" John Osmond, Master, and arrived October 29, 1770.

Henry Horn was in Adams County, Pennsylvania in 1775-6 and later removed to Washington County, Maryland, as War Department Adjutant General's Office gives his enlistment there in January, 1777 and he was there in 1787 according to a record at Lexington, Virginia. He made a number of trips from there into Virginia and about 1791 he removed with his family to Rockbridge County, Virginia.

After he moved to Virginia, he made many trips into Ohio, but did not settle there until after the death of his wife, in 1815. No record has been found of his marriage to Elizabeth Trone, but many of that name were to be found in Adams County, Penna. and in Washington County, Maryland. Henry and his wife were members of the Presbyterian Church of Rockbridge County, Va., but the records of the Presbyterian Churches were destroyed in a fire.

Few records of Adams County refer to a Henry Horn. Under Administrators Bonds, is found, - "Nov. 28, 1789. Estate of Henry Horn Sr., of Heidelberg Township; Henry Horn of Washington County, Md. and George Horn of Germany Township, York County, Penna. Administrators. Tenet in one thousand Pounds". Signed Henrich Horn in German Script, and George Horn in English. His signature corresponds with others in Virginia and Ohio signed Henrich or Heinrich.

Records of taxables 1783 York Co. "Henry Horn of Heidelberg Twp., 10 acres, 1 house, 1 horned cow, 3 sheep. Five inhabitants.

In 1799 assessment list of Germany Twp. - Fred Horn assessed $578.00. George Horn assessed $1,273.00. From Bradsby-Sheelcy-Leeson History of Adams County.

"The Great Conewago Presbyterian Church stood before 1803 in the eastern end of the present St. Paul's Cemetery, when it was removed to give place to the first Union log building at this point. Among the Irish-Presbyterians interred there is found the grave of George Horn who died 1832." From the Bradley-Sheelcy-Leeson's History of Adams County. York County included Adams County before 1800.

The Historical Society of York County states that "Henry Horn, aged 78, deposed on March 19, 1832 that during the Revolution, in 1775 or 1776, and in York County, he was drafted for a tour of two months under Captain Deal in Colonel Swoope's Regiment". From National Genealogical Society Quarterly, XVIII 49.

E. P. Tompkins, M. D. of Lexington, Va. copied the following from the Rockbridge County, Virginia records, - "April 27, 1787, McCampbell deeds land on Back Creek to Henry Horn of Washington County, Maryland." "In 1790 Henry Horn was taxed on 150 acres, but not in 1791 or later."

"April 3, 1792 Henry and Elizabeth Horn deed to Philip Potter 104 acree" Both called of Rockbridge County, Virginia. Henry signed in German script and Elizabeth with a mark.

"June 5, 1809 Henry and Elizabeth Horn deed to John McClelland for $214.00 two hundred and eighty six acres, being a part of the 1200 acres on Hay's Creek" Hay's Creek flows into the North River (now Maury River) Also signed in German.

"June 3, 1809 Henry and Elizabeth Horn of Rockbridge Co., deed to James McDowell for $367.00 three hundred and eighty three acres, being a portion of the 1200 acres Henry Horn purchased of Samuel Clark." This is signed by both, in German.

From Preble County, Ohio comes the following records, - "Estate of Henry Horn who died Nov. 17, 1839 at Lewisburg, Ohio. Estate No. 821, Probate office of Preble County, at Eaton, Ohio. Appraisers; Garland Harris, Abraham Lock, and John Border.

Administrators: Samuel Kesler, brother of W 3

This Bible purchased by Mary, daughter of Henry Horn and wife of Christian Kizer was at her death appraised at 50¢ and her son John, with the consent of other Kizer heirs took it over at appraisement and wrote and signed the following statement concerning it: "Lewisburg, O. March 1, 1879. Received of Samuel Oldfather, Adm'r of Estate of Mary Kizer Deceased.

The Old German Bible valued by the appraisers at 50/100 dollars. The same by mutual consent to be kept by me in my possession during my natural life subject however to the inspection of anyone or all of Relatives of the Deceased, Mary Kizer, and at my death to go to my brothers or sisters if living. If neither living, then to some one of nearest Relatives to Mary Kizer deceased living at that time." Signed by John Kizer(# 44.)

At his death his daughter, Emma Kizer gave it to Kate Horn wife of David Horn (57).

During David Horn's last illness in 1919, Ella Lease, his daughter took care of him and received the Bible and gave it finally to her son, Dr. Roscoe David Leas (No. 706) of Cleveland, Ohio. Roscoe had a German Professor at the Reservation translate what was still readable. So much was so faint and some of the edges of pages were missing, that the translation is rather unsatisfactory.

"Henry Horn has taken as a wife -----

I do not know how many lines were unreadable. It would appear that practically no line could be read in full. It probably gave the name of Henry's wife and date of marriage. The year 1785 may have been the date of the death of his father, and the July 6th the birth date of his wife or father.

It would seem his eldest child was named John Henry (Johan Heinrich or Henrich in German).

The fourth child John was Johannes in the German. The last line could not be translated with any certainty, although it seems to read "then I was" and the balance of the line faded out, it may have given the birth of Andrew.

Another page was translated as follows,-

"George Hassler was born -----

This George (Jorg) was probable a brother of Henry and the record was kept by their father, who probable died in 1785 is why no more of George's record was added. He was likely the Henry Horn of Heidelberg Township, Pennsylvania to whose estate the Henry Horn of Washington Co., Maryland and George Horn of Germany Township were appointed as administrators Nov. 28, 1789. Henry Horn of Washington County, Maryland took the Bible it would seem, and kept the record of the later children.

George Kelley (No. 227) collected a great amount of records around 1916-18 and Mrs. Clara Clemmer Stover helped him to get data, but she has only what she collected for him of this as he said she would have all the other in the book he was going to print, but never did. I understand these records he collected are now Bertram Kelley's (No. 610) who has never opened the package.

So far have failed to get consent to look the records over. Mrs. Stover quotes the following extracts from the letters George Kelley wrote to her:

"Aug. 8, 1916, ---- David will let me have the old family bible that was brought from Germany to make a half-tone of, and I will also have the Family Record photed on copper and engraved for printing in the history"

"Oct. 4, 1916, ----- I wrote David Horn, but have not heard from him. He has Grandmother Kizer's old bible, which was Grandfather Horn's -----This will be a curiosity to almost every one as the record is written in German and in a hand peculiar in almost every way. -----Even now I have the matter that will admit every female descendant into the D.A.R."

"Jan 4, 1917-----I have the date and place of his birth and the date of each of his enlistments, of which there were four, and the name of the town where he was mustered out, at the close of the Revolutionary war. He had a fine record, one any of his descendants can be proud of."

April 7, 1917 ----- I have a recent photograph taken in January of the home of Grandfather Horn in Virginia. Some of the descendants occupy it. The history will contain a half-tone of it."

"July 20, 1917 ----- He with his parents and his brother Lewis came from Germany in 1768 and settled in Adams County, Pennsylvania. The state of Virginia records and the United States Army records show he was a soldier in the Revolutionary war. He enlisted three times, the last for a period 'during the war'. He was mustered out of service at Morristown, New Jersey.

----- The Many facts I collected years ago from Uncle George, Michael, and from George's son, Henry, and my grandmother Polly Horn Kizer, and my mother, will serve a fine purpose now and will enhance interest in the History."

These letters gave very little information. The date of his coming to America he gave as 1768, but the list of "Pennsylvania Pioneers" gave only an Adam Horn as coming that year, and this name is not used in the family and would not therefore appear to be the parent.

There were other Histories and Biographies, but they do not all agree. The following is said to have been furnished by Allen T. Horn (No. 78) and is in the History of Preble County 1798-1881, by H. Z. Williams & Bros. Publishers., Page 205. "Henry Horn was born in Germany, in the year 1755. At the age of nine years he came to America, and in 1815 he moved to Preble Co., Ohio, from Rockbridge County, Virginia. He settled on Section 27, where he died in 1839. His body was buried in the cemetery at Euphemia. His wife died in Va. the year previous to his removal to this County. He had 13 children born to him, of whom 4 survive, namely; Sarah Black living in Lewisburg; Michael living on the old farm in Lewisburg; Susannah McEwen in Indiana and Andrew in Logan County, Ohio.

Page 212. "Lewisburg was laid out by Zachery Hole in 1816 but was not recorded. The first work recorded is that of Henry Horn on the 7th of Sept., 1818. The town contains 28 in-lots. Greenville Street running north five degrees east, three streets running parallel with each other crossing Greenville at right angles, namely; Dayton, Twin and Water Streets. The town shall be called Lewisburg." Some other description is given and all signed and sealed by Henry Horn. Page 215. "The first distillery in the township was run by Henry Horn in 1811 in Lewisburg."

In the Preble County Directory 1875, by B. F. Morgan, Pages 176 and 150 "Lewisburg, Ohio population 391; oldest town in Harrison Township; laid out in 1818 by Henry Horn; twenty lots in his plot. A. T. Horn, drugs and stationary, Lewisburg."

The following was printed in the column, 'Our Forefathers' by Mrs. D. M. Brien in the Dayton, Ohio, Sunday Journal. "Henry Horn was born in Germany 1755; to Adams County, Pennsylvania 1768; Virginia 1790; Ohio 1806; died Preble County, Ohio, Nov. 17, 1839. Laid out the Town of Lewisburg, 1818, Revolutionary War Soldier."

The following has been proved, to not be, our Henry Horn's War Record:
From the Official Roster, Soldiers of the American Revolution buried in Ohio. - 1929 Page 192.
"Henry Horn, Preble Co., private in Captain John Smith's Company, Fourth Virginia Regiment; born Oct. 8, 1755 Rockbridge Co., Virginia; to Ohio 1812 and founded the city of Lewisburg, Preble County where he died Nov. 17, 1839; buried in Roselawn Cemetery."

In Brumbaugh's Revolutionary War Records of Virginia. Page 451. "Henry Horn, private three years Continental Line. Warrant 6166, Military District of Ohio."

"Henry Horn was born 1755 in Rockbridge Co., Virginia. Died 1839 in Lewisburg, Ohio. Married Elizabeth Trone."

From War Department, Adjutant General's Office.
"Henry Horn served in the Revolutionary war as a private in Captain John Smith's Company, also designated Captain Isaac Beall's Company, Fourth Virginia Regiment. One record shows he enlisted Janu. 27, 1777 in Washington County, Maryland. And Feb. 10, 1777 for three years and joined April 6, 1777. He enlisted December 24, 1778 for the duration of the War." His name last appears on roll for Nov. 1779 at a camp near Morristown, N. J. about 25 miles from Newton, N. J.

Henry Horn's correct Revolutionary War Record, according to the D.A.R. The following is a part of letter written to Clara E. Stover on July 7, 1948, by Mrs. Ethel M. Tynes (Mrs. Wm. N.) Registrar General of the National Society of the D.A.R.: "We cannot attribute the service from Washington County, Pa. to this Henry Horn, nor service from Virginia as previously claimed for him." "Through the pension application of Jacob Kesler, S 2688, we secured an affidavit made March 10, 1833, by Henry Horn of Preble County, Ohio, then aged 78, regarding his service in York County, Pennsylvania. A further reference covering his service is found in "Pennsylvania Archives" Sixth Series, Vol II page 706 and in "History of York County, Pa." by Powell, Vol. I, page 271" "This record has now been verified with service from York Co. Pa. in 1776 under Captain George Deal (Diehl) in Col. Michael Swope's Reg. and in 1777-78 in York Co. Pa. in Captain Thos. White's Company of the 7th Battalion of the York County Pennsylvania Militia.

(Signed) Ethel M. Tynes.

In "History of York Co., Pa" by Geo. R. Powell, Page 271. The 6th Battalion of York Co. Militia, organized in 1776 was composed of eight companies. It was commanded in 1777-8 by Col. Wm. Ross, with David Miller as major, Henry Horn was in list of privates under Capt. Thos White, 1st Leut. Robert Jefferies, 2nd Leut John Jefferies, and Ensign Alexander Lees.

In records from York Co. Pa. was found the following: "Henry Horn of Paradise Township, Pvt. in the 2nd (Capt. Thos. White) Company, 7th Battalion, York Co. Militia, according to return of 1777-80."

Also farther proof of this service is an affidavit made by Henry Horn of Preble County, Ohio that states he served two months in 1776 with Jacob Kesler, at which time they were both serving from York County, Pennsylvania.

In the "History of Preble County Ohio" by R. E. Lowry - 1915 Page 695. (Printed by B. F. Bowen & Co. Inc. Indianapolis, Ind.) "Henry Horn was born at Hutterberg, Germany, in 1755, and came with his parents to America in 1768. They settled in Adams County, Pa. and remained there until 1790, in which year Henry Horn moved to Va. Either just before coming to America or during the passage on the ocean, Henry Horn's parents lost the money with which to pay for their passage and the steamship company bound them out for security of the debt. In 1806 Henry Horn came to Ohio, coming down the Ohio River by boat and landing near the present city of Cincinnati, then containing only a few huts. At this time he could have purchased land within the present limits of Cincinnati for ten dollars an acre but this price then was considered very high. Hearing that the price of land was much less up the state, he traveled in northerly direction from what is now the Queen City and purchased a large tract between Eaton and Camden at one dollar and twenty-five cents an acre. (Page 696). It was Henry Horn's intention to move to Ohio, but his wife, hearing of the savagery of the Indians, declined to come, so he sold the land and returned to Va. In the meantime his wife died and he returned to Ohio in 1814 in search of land and prospecting for a mill site. Finding a mill on the location of the old Turner mill, he purchased this, together with two hundred and eighty acres, which included some of the present town of Lewisburg, building his house on the site known as Horn's Hill; facing east, which is on North Greenville St., Lewisburg, and overlooks the beautiful and fertile Twin valley.

His first home was made of hewn logs and was built in 1814, more than a hundred years ago. This land has remained in the possession of the Horn family until the present day. The farm was handed down to Henry Horn's son Michael Horn, who with his wife made it their lifelong home. They reared a family of seven children; William, Elizabeth, Henry, Amanda, Allen, Catherine and Isabel. Of this family only Elizabeth and Isabel who now occupy the old home, inherited from their father at his death in 1891, are now living. (Mike died in 1889) The mill which Henry Horn purchased, having been destroyed by fire, was rebuilt and has long since been known as the Turner Mill. Henry Horn also built a saw-mill, still-house, and tannery. Being interested in the organization of a town, he made a plat consisting of 28 lots and on Sept. 7, 1818, he laid out the town of Lewisburg, naming it after an old town in Virginia. The first church was erected in 1820, on the spot where Roselawn Cemetery is now located. It was a log church and the logs were hewn by Mr. Beard. The pioneer settlers came from miles around for the "raising" accompanied by their wives and daughters. Reverend Espech was the first minister who preached in this church." This account is a part of a sketch about George C. Horn, a great-grand-son of Henry Horn.

The land for the church was given by Frederick Black, father of Joseph h 9, and was known as the Black Church. It belonged to two denominations.

The following was taken from the bible of Sarah Horn Black (9) now in possession of her great-grandson Clarence Black (757)

"Henry Horn was fifteen years old when he came to America. He arrived on October 8, 1770 from Whittenberg, Germany in company with his parents and two brothers, George and Frederic. Henry Horn was married to Elizabeth Trone. She died in Rockbridge County, Virginia. They first settled in Adams County, Pa. and then moved to Virginia in 1791. They moved to Ohio in 1812. They had twelve children grown and one infant who died. Henry Horn died aged 84 years, one month, nine days.

Henry Horn came to Ohio in 1806, landed where the city of Cincinnati stands. Lands sold there for $1.25 per acre. He continued later up the valley to Preble County and there purchased land in the midst of the red man. He moved the family to Ohio in 1815." On a paper in the bible it gave Henry Horn's wife died in Virginia the spring of 1815.

In the various records and histories mention is made of brothers of Henry Horn as Lewis, Lawrence, Frederic and George. No proof is found for any of these names, unless George Hassler Horn mentioned in the old German Bible. Lewis could have been the one that died at sea, and Lewisburg, Ohio was named by Henry Horn in remembrance of him.

There was a Lawrence Hooran mentioned in the early records of Augusta County, Va., (Rockbridge County was taken partly from Augusta Co). In Vol. 3, pg. 233 of Judge Lyman Chalkey's early records of Augusta County it states that Eve, daughter of Casper Snyder who lived on Nakid creek, married Lawrence Hooran. No date given but apparently before 1795.

The John and Frederic Horns mentioned in the early records of York Co. Pa. may or may not have had any connection with Henry Horn born 1755.

The signatures mentioned previously were given in Vol. ii page 824 of Strassburgers List of Pa. Pioneers from Germany, and contains that of Heinrich Horn who arrived Oct. 6, 1767 on the "Hamilton" and consigned to Mess. Willing and Morris Nov. 9, 1767 (also given in Vol. 1, page 717, List 265). The signature very closely resembles that of Henry Horn of York Co. Pa. b 1755 and later of Washington Co. Md., Rockbridge Co. Va., and Lewisburg, Ohio.

Rev. William A. Clemmer (No. 657) in 1896 wrote a history of the Horn family. This was read at a reunion of the Preble County Horns, and some one of those present gave the information in regard to the old secretary, which was added on to the original. His sister, Clara Clemmer Stover (No. 660) has made some corrections in 1946 from facts obtained later.

"The history which I will now read of the Horn Family is not one that was kept from time to time in a written form as it should have been, but is one that has been collected from the memories of our oldest survivors, to whom we certainly owe many thanks for their kindness in having revealed it to us, after much thought and deliberation. Of those, we are indebted mostly to Uncle John Kizer and Henry Horn. They have been able to go back to the time when there were no Horns in America. Yes, they have taken us back to a period thirteen years before they came to America. They have not been able to tell what their occupation might have been before this time, but they do know for a certainty that Henry Horn was born in 1755 in Wittenburg, Germany. In the year 1768, his parents, two or three brothers and himself, started for America. On the ocean, however, one of them died and was buried in the waters of the Atlantic. The others landed safely and settled in Adams County, Penn. Their father had only enough money to pay his and his wife's passage and as a consequence of this their children were all sold to defray the expense of their voyage. One of the boys went off and traded with the Indians and nothing more was heard of him.

Henry, in whom we have the greatest interest as he was at the head of our family, was sold to a blacksmith and learned the trade. When the Revolutionary war broke out in 1775, Henry enlisted in the army and went to Norfolk. On account of the smallness of his stature, they did not want him in the army, and after remaining only three months, he again came home. He was soon married and moved to his home, a small log house furnished with such furniture as a clab-board bed and table. The clab-board bed was made by boring two holes into the logs of the wall into which were placed two sticks. These sticks were supported at the other end by an upright stick and upon them were placed the clab-boards which served as a foundation for blankets and coverlets. The table was constructed on a similar plan. As to other furniture in the house; you may form a good idea of its scarcity by the fact that when they moved, they each carried their possessions in a pack handkerchief, which is about a yard square. His occupation while there was that of making saddles, tacks and nails. The iron from which he made the tacks was about the size of tire iron. He wanted to buy a half a ton of iron, and in order to get it he was compelled to give his note. At this time the laws were such that every thing and even one's self might be sold to pay his debts, so that he and his wife worked hard day and night to pay the debt. They made and sold tacks fast enough so that he was able to pay the debt before it was due. The next time he bought one ton of iron and again he paid the debt before it was due, so that after that he was not compelled to give his note for payment anymore. He followed the blacksmith trade there until 1791 when he moved to the State of Virginia and even then he did not give it up. After he had lived in Virginia some time Colonel McDowell, with whom he had won intimate friendship and who was a well to do and influential man, persuaded him to bid on some land that was to be sold at auction. He bid twelve and a half cents per acre, and the others who had intended to bid, and who were of a very wealthy class, laughed to each other at Henry, as he was very poorly clad and concluded to just let it stick on his hands. Henry was very glad to "let it stick" as he soon sold the land at a good profit. In 1806 He came to Ohio. He landed off the boat in the Ohio River near the present city of Cincinnati, which then contained a few log huts. At that time he could have bought land within the present city of Cincinnati at ten dollars an acre, but this seemingly was very dear to him for he could get land near here for a dollar and a quarter. So he bought a piece of land between Eaton and Camden. It was his intention to move to Ohio, but someone had told his wife of the savagery of the Indians and she consequently declined to come. So he sold the land again, but during this time his wife died. He again came to Ohio in 1814 in search of land. It was his intention to start a mill and upon finding the old mill, where now stands Turners Mill, upon which he might grind flour and crack corn fairly well, he at once concluded to buy. So he bought 280 acres of land which included much of the present town of Lewisburg. He overhauled the old mill, but later it burned down and with it much grain. He then built the mill, which is now the old Turner Mill below town. He also built a saw mill, still house and tannery.

In 1818, he laid off the town of Lewisburg. He spent the remaining days of his life with George, his son, on the farm north of town where Cornelius Horn now lives and where he died Nov. 17, 1839.

Of Henry's family, eight came with him to Ohio. One died before he came, and three, Jake, Henry and Betsy remained in Virginia. Of those who came to Ohio, there were four boys and four girls; - Katy, Polly (Mary), Sallie and Susan, John, George, Michael and Andrew. Of the girls, Susan married Robert McEwen. Kate married George Kesler in Va., and each moved to Indiana and bought land there. Sallie married Joseph Black and moved on the farm of Miller's Fork, directly afterwards. Joe fell from the over-den of the barn upon the threshing floor and died within fifteen hours thereafter. Aunt Sallie lived there a widow for a number of years, but at last sold the farm and moved to Lewisburg where she died. Polly married Christian Kizer. She was next to oldest girl and was also married before they left Virginia. Mr. Kizer followed the carpenter trade. After Mr. Kizer's death she moved upon the farm where she lived a widow the remaining days of her life.

Of the boys, Andy was the miller, George the distiller, Michael the tanner, and John the farmer. Sometime between 1827 and 1830 John moved to Bellefontaine, Ohio, having traded his land here for land there. In 1833, Andy also moved to Bellefontaine, where he received 240 acres of land from his father.

George moved on the farm where Cornelius Horn now lives, but afterwards moved back to Euphemia where he lived sometime, and then moved back to the farm again where he died in 1868. Michael remained on the old homestead at Lewisburg where he died Dec. 14, 1889."

The old secretary which was the receptical of Grandfather Horn's money was found to contain after his death in 1839 $4,444.00 in silver. The secretary is now in possession of Cornelius Horn and has been in the Horn family for seventy five years.

There was also a History of the Horn Family, by Olive Brown (Horn) Lesemann (No. 193) and compiled from the records of the Bellefontaine Horns in 1896.

"These facts for this little history were gleaned from a few old records and in a great extent from the memory of Katherine (Horn) Huffman, a daughter of John Horn. She has a mind remarkably clear on the subject and the enjoyment of the writers was great when listening to the interesting details told by her.

About the middle of the eighteenth century the earliest of our ancestors, concerning which we are unable to find anything, embarked from Germany to America with their two children, Henry and Lawrence, lads of ten and eight years respectively.

Not much can be learned concerning the parents of these lads, so we will base our history on the facts we have learned about them. Both were thrifty, industrious lads, Lawrence having earned by the greatest economy, quite a sum of money, decided to possess himself of a small stock of goods and lead the life of an itinerant merchant. He left New York and was never heard of again. Whether he wandered away and never wrote to his brother, or was murdered, has never been assured.

Henry became an apprentice to a blacksmith. At the age of twenty one, he was united in marriage to Miss Elizabeth Trone. Soon after his marriage he was enlisted and served through the Revolutionary War.

An amazing story is told of a lady who had great confidence in Henry Horn's ability as a blacksmith. At the lady's marriage, her mother gave her a darning needle as a wedding present (don't smile, for at that time such a gift was very valuable). One day the lady had the misfortune to break the valuable gift and immediately took it to blacksmith Henry to be mended.

Henry, being very kindhearted, did not tell her it was impossible to do so, but took the needle. The next day, having occasion to go to the city, he purchased a new darning needle for her. She went home rejoicing, saying that the blacksmith had made her needle better than before.

It was the ambition of the young husband and wife to go to Pennsylvania. So both labored together. After staying a few years in Pennsylvania, they moved to Virginia, and it was there that there was born to this union seven sons and five daughters. The sons were Henry, Jacob, John, George, David, Michael and Andrew. The daughters were Katherine, Mary, Elizabeth, Sarah and Susan.

The family whose home was in Lexington, Virginia, became very prosperous, owning about fifteen hundred acres of land in Virginia and Ohio.

while he and his family lived in Virginia he made seven trips on horseback to Ohio, the far west at that time. We have this heirloom which we now show to remind us of the perilous trips to Ohio. It is the bridle bit which was used on each successive trip.

His fourth child, John Horn, served in the War of 1812, and in 1815 was married to Miss Nancy Sheets of Rockbridge County, Virginia. In 1816, John and Nancy Horn moved to Preble County, Ohio. John went to Ohio with a wagon load of their possessions, and his wife, Nancy, came down the Ohio River in a boat.

During a short stay at Gallipolis, their first child was born, 1816, Elizabeth, or Aunt Betsy, as we of the younger generation hear her called. The following children were born in Preble County, Ohio - Jacob, 1818; Katherine, 1821; who died at the age of two weeks; Sarah, 1822; Henry, 1825; Mary Katherine, 1827. The family then moved to Logan County, Ohio and her Susanna was born in 1830; Joseph, 1832; died at age of five years; John S., 1834; Abial, 1837; and George, 1840.

When they moved to Logan County, they lived in a log cabin at the present site of the old Horn homestead on North Main Street. Of these children, the following are the survivors, - Sarah Harris, Mary Katherine Huffman, Susanna Hartley Rife, Abiel and George Horn.

Later in 1833, John's brother, Andrew, moved from Preble County to Logan County. His father, Henry Horn, having purchased for him a farm of about two hundred acres in Harrison Township. The old Horn homestead of the Andrew Horn branch of the family is located on a by-road between the McCauley bridge and Sidney pikes.

Before coming to Logan County, two children, Mary and Henry, were born. Afterwards, Elizabeth, David, who was scalded to death, Barbara, John, Will, who was killed in the Civil War, Sarah and Nancy.

Andrew Horn moved to Logan County, and erected a sawmill, a portion is believed to be still standing. The children surviving are Mary Turner, Henry Horn, Elizabeth Niven, Barbara Peebles, John Horn, Sarah Kelly, and Nancy Scott."

This was read at a Logan County reunion of the Horn Family.

The following has just been received from Bertrum Kelley who states that this is the only data he finds in his father's, George W. Kelley's, papers in regard to the Horn family, and that he does not know what became of the large amount of records collected by him. It will be noted that he refers to the birth place of Henry, 2nd, as Huttenberg, Germany and this could be from the translation of the German Script in the old bible.

"Henry Horn was born in Huttenberg, Germany and settled in Adams County, Pennsylvania, and removed from there to Virginia.

Either just before coming or during the voyage on the ocean, Henry Horn, the 1st, lost the money with which to pay his passage and the steamship company bound them out for the amount of their passage money.

In 1806, Henry Horn, 2nd, came to Ohio, coming down the Ohio River to the site of the present city of Cincinnati, then containing only a few houses, merely huts. At the time he could have purchased all the land he wanted at the present landing for ten dollars an acre, but the price was considered too high.

Hearing that the price of land was much less up the state, he traveled north from what is now the town of Queen City and purchased a large tract between Eaton and Camden in Preble County, Ohio at $1.25 an acre. It was his intentions to live in Ohio, but his wife, hearing of the savagery of the Indians, wanted to leave, so he sold the land and returned to Virginia.

In the meantime his wife died, and he came to Ohio in 1812 in search of land and prospecting for a mill site. Finding a mill on Twin Creek on the site of the old Bowens tract, he purchased this together with two hundred and eighty acres, built his house on the site now known as Horn Hill facing east which is now on North Greenville Street. His first home. was made of logs, built in 1814, more than one hundred years ago. This land has remained in the Horn family until the present day. The farm was handed down to Michael Horn, his son, who with his wife made it their life long home. They reared a family of seven children and Isabel and Elizabeth inherited it from their father, Michael Horn.

The mill, which Henry purchased, having been destroyed by fire, was rebuilt and has since been known as the Old Turner Mill. The mill is still in operation having been refitted with up to date milling machinery. He also built a saw mill, a still house, and a tannery. Michael was the tanner, George the miller, and Jacob the distiller.

Henry Horn made a plat of 28 lots and on Sept. 7, 1818 he laid out the town of Lewisburg, naming it after an old town in Virginia.

The first church was established in 1820 on the spot where Roselawn cemetery is now located. It was a log church and the logs were hewn by a Mr. Beard. The pioneer settlers came from miles around to the raising, accompanied by their wives, sons and daughters. Ray Espich was the first minister who preached in this church."

The above was probably written by George Kelley 1916-8. He mentions Elizabeth Trone, wife of Henry Horn as dying before 1812, where other records place her death as spring of 1815. Her place of burial has not been found, but it is supposed she was buried in a family burial plat on their home place in Rockbridge Co., Virginia. Most of these were situated on a high point of land, but have not been kept up and stones are fallen or gone.

Jabob could not have been the distiller as he stayed in Virginia.

Bertrum Kelley also found in the papers of George Kelley the following notes, - "Henry Horn, 2nd, b. Oct. 8, 1755 of Rockbridge Co., Virginia, died at Lewisburg, Ohio, November 17, 1839. Served as private in Captain John Smith's Company, 4th Virginia Regiment, subsequently changed to 3d and 4th Virginia Regiment. He is variously shown to have enlisted Jan. 27, 1777, Feb. 10, 1777 for three years and Dec. 24, 1778 for the war. He last appears on roll Nov. 1779 at camp near Morristown, a town about twenty five miles from Newton, N. J. (From Adj. General's Office, Virginia.)"

It seems very doubtful if the Henry Horn born 1755 ever enlisted from Virginia. In the Virginia State Library, Richmond, Va. is an application for land bounty made by Henry Horn of Rockbridge County, Virginia and dated August 1, 1814. This Henry Horn states he was eighty one years of age and that he served three years as private under Captain Isaac Beale (Beall) 4th Virginia Regiment.

If this Henry Horn was eighty one in 1814, he was born in 1733 and he may have been the father to the George Horn of Rockbridge Co., Va. who married Margaret Brown in 1782 according to a record in Orin Morton's History of Rockbridge County, Virginia.

FIRST GENERATION

HENRY HORN, born in Wittenberg, Germany, October 8, 1755; died Lewisburg, Ohio, November 17, 1839, aged 84 years, 1 month, 19 days and buried in Roselawn Cemetery which is situated in southern part of Euphemia, and between Euphemia and Lewisburg, Ohio, and on land that was part of the Frederick Black Farm. Frederick Black was father of the Joseph who married Sarah, daughter of Henry Horn. Henry Horn married in Pennsylvania Elizabeth Trone, who died in Virginia about 1814. She probably died near Rockbridge Baths, Va. We have Blanch Horn Lincoln (310) to thank for this list of birth dates which she had copied from her grandfather Michael Horn's Bible in 1928. Henry died at home of his son George one and one half miles north of Lewisburg, Ohio.

CATHERINE HORN (Henry) known as Kate, b. May 20, 1787; d. July 7, 1857. She married in Virginia George Kesler, b. May 19, 1787; d. July 4, 1857, son of Jacob Kesler, b. July 14, 1757 in Germany and died Aug. 12, 1843 in Tippecanoe Co., Ind. and was buried in the Kesler-Chamcy Cemetery later known as Chizum Chappel Cemetery and his wife Catherine, who died Jan. 4, 1823 aged 74 yrs., 1 mo., 5 days and buried in Roselawn Cemetery near Lewisburg, Ohio.

Jacob Kesler enlisted in York Co., Penna. He removed to Rockingham Co., Va. and in 1811 to Preble County, Ohio. George and Catherine (Horn) Kesler settled in 1833 in Tippecanoe County, Laurimie Township, Section 28, on Nine Mile Prairie, Indiana.

"George Kesler, who was a native of Maryland, settled in Preble Co., Ohio when the surrounding country was in a state of nature, and Indians and wild animals were the principle inhabitants, the date of his settlement there being in the year of 1812. He served four months with his team in the War of 1812, besides hiring a substitute when drafted. He experienced many of the hardships and privations incident to pioneer life, and often his boots froze on his feet so that he would have to cut his boots to get them off. His father, Jacob Kesler, was a native of Germany, and was a soldier in the Revolution, being taken prisoner by the Hessians.

George Kesler went to Lauramie Township, Tippecanoe County, Indiana in 1833 and entered several hundred acres of land from the Government, and also purchased a tract of land. He was a farmer." From Biographical Record and Portrait Album of Tippecanoe County, Indiana. Published in 1888.

Sent in by widow of Frank Kizer: "Mr. Kizer was a Sunday School Missionary - working for the American Sunday School Union of Philadelphia and traveled all over north part of Kansas, many thousands of miles - and organized a great many sunday schools, many of them becoming churches in time. He traveled about 40 years then retired for 10 years. He was a wonderful man - well educated - and knew the Bible. Genial and Chivalrous, welcomed wherever he went, fine homes, school houses, sod dwellings of the earlier days. His hobby was pictures - drawing crayon cartoons on blackboard or large paper, while talking enlarging on Bible truths, especially S. S. lessons and temperance lessons. Also for years he carried stereopticon and religious slides."

Printed a newspaper in Kansas City, Mo. Spent his last years with daughters at Ocean Beach, Calif.

George W. Kelley printed a newspaper in Kansas City, Mo. He has been mentioned in the Historical Sketch as the one who in 1916-18 collected data on the Horns, intending to print a Horn History. At that time prices of help and paper go so high that he gave up the idea for the time being. He often printed such histories for families but the War was just over and he thought it best to wait awhile. It seems that about all of that material collected was lost and a sister thinks it was burned in a fire. Of all the photographs loaned him were lost but two, Uncle Mike Horn and his wife. And of the over 360 blanks sent in only five were found by his son Bertrum of Topeka, Kans. among the papers that were sent to him. Those were Henry Horn #50, Wm. Horn #244, Jos. E.F. Horn #245, Ethel Horn Singer #648 and Byford Horn #649

Rogers, b. about 1860; d. Aug. 29, 1944

Copied from a newspaper date Aug. 29, 1944.

"Mr. Rogers was a leader 40 years in the religious life of Dayton as a Bible teacher and Y.M.C.A. worker. He was born in a log cabin in Berrien Springs, Mich. and came to Dayton in 1892. He worked on the farm until he was 18 when he went to Colorado to work in the silver mines and went to night school to improve his education. He walked 18 miles to Boulder, Colo. to take teachers examination and taught school first at Caribou, Colo.
He then came back in 1885 to visit his mother and taught school in Lewisburg before going to Dayton and began work in a publishing house.

 344 Schenck Ave. He had a drug store on 625 Xenia Ave., until Feb. 1950

Fred A. Horn is a druggist at 625 Xenia Ave. and has an interesting collection of articles used by pharmacists of the long ago. It includes iron mortars and pestles used in 1850, a brass mortar of 1800, doctor's scales 120 years old and other pharmacy scales of 1825; spatulas and hypodermic syringe dating back to 1875; lance for blood letting; old book of prescriptions written by Dayton doctors; physician's instrument case of 1860 and a suppository mold used in 1850. An interesting portion of Horn's collection are a sheaf of recipes compiled by his father Dr. Allen T. Horn, a licensed physician, who began operation of a drugstore in Lewisburg in 1867 after he served in the Civil War. The senior Horn preserved a pad of prescription blanks, quite unlike those used today. This article was copied from a newspaper.

Oliver E. Faulkner went to Washington from Ind.
 as a pioneer school teacher in 1906. He has 3 degrees in Education and is now retired from teaching and also from preaching, having preached at Grace Methodist Church in Tacoma, Wash.
 He still writes insurance for the State Farm Ins.
 Companies of Bloomington, Ill. for Auto, life and fire. All of his girls are college graduates and four of these have six degrees from college. Ruth is still teaching. Mrs. Faulkner is related to Phil Sheridan and her people were quakers from Henry Co., Indiana. During the war the Government had 6000 to 8000 Japs in the grounds of the West Washington Fair about three blocks from their home in Puyallup. Early in the century they homesteaded in Franklin Co., Wash. and now 140 acres come under the Grand Coulee Project for irrigation.

Fred T. Horn has what he fondly believes to be the gun that Henry carried when he came to Ohio from Virginia in 1815. It is flintlock smoothbore, manufactured in 1810 or 1811 and could have been his. His grandson, Henry (75), Grandfather of Fred, gave the gun to Fred when he was as tall as the gun, which measures exactly 5 feet. Fred has restored it and fires it occasionally on holidays or to celebrate some big event, like the ending of World War II. He has stamped on the barrel, Henry-Michael-Henry-Howard-Fred-John.
